Forum Energy Technologies Provides Fourth Quarter 2021 Operational Update and Announces Timing of Earnings Conference Call

HOUSTON, TEXAS, February 7, 2022 - Forum Energy Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: FET) today announced that fourth quarter 2021 operating results are expected to be below previously provided guidance levels. Results in the fourth quarter were negatively affected by further supply chain disruptions, which caused both revenue to be deferred and costs to increase. In addition, the company incurred excess logistics and freight costs in an effort to mitigate these supply chain disruptions. Also, medical benefit costs were higher than expected in the fourth quarter due to the direct and indirect effects of the COVID pandemic.

As a result of these factors, revenue and adjusted EBITDA for the fourth quarter of 2021 are now expected to be approximately $148 million and $4 million, respectively.

On a full year basis, 2021 revenue of $541 million and adjusted EBITDA of $20 million are expected to exceed prior year revenue by $29 million and adjusted EBITDA by $40 million, respectively.

Cris Gaut, FET's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "While the ongoing business impact from supply chain disruptions and increased expediting costs are disappointing, we remain pleased with our overall full-year 2021 performance. The team's hard work to increase our revenue and meaningfully improve profitability over 2020 are commendable. Our bookings of new orders continue to be strong and our fourth quarter book to bill ratio of approximately 1.1x builds upon our already meaningful backlog, setting up continued revenue expansion over the course of 2022."

"We expect fourth quarter free cash flow of approximately negative $8 million to be better than our previous guidance, despite lower profitability. In addition, we executed several noteworthy strategic moves during the fourth quarter that are not included in the free cash flow calculation, including the collection of a long-term receivable for $11 million in cash. We also repurchased 56 thousand shares of FET common stock for $1.1 million pursuant to our Board authorized stock repurchase plan. In addition, we utilized $4 million in cash for two tuck-in acquisitions of complementary businesses. Overall, net debt increased by $3 million in the quarter. We will share more details on these actions and our 2022 outlook on our earnings call."

Due to the preliminary nature of this guidance, a reconciliation to net income and cash flow from operations is not currently available. A full reconciliation will be provided with Forum's fourth quarter and full year 2021 earnings release.
