The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any Advisor, and ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

3. Delegate to its Chairman, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances. However, subcommittees shall not have the authority to engage independent legal counsel and other experts and advisors unless expressly granted such authority by the Committee. To identify such a nominee, the Committee should solicit recommendations from existing directors and senior management. These recommendations should be considered by the Committee along with any recommendations that have been received from stockholders as discussed below. The Committee may, in its discretion, retain a search firm to provide additional candidates. The following categories are representative of the types of items or qualities that might be considered by the Committee, depending on the background, skills and abilities of a particular candidate, prior to recommending to the Board that a person be elected to fill a vacancy:
